Oamaru charities and residents gearing up for Garage Sale.

Oamaru charities and residents alike are gearing up for the "Great Trash 'n' Treasure Garage Sale" this Saturday at The Oamaru Opera House. Charities involved include The SPCA, Orphan Aid International and Save The Children who will use event as a fundraiser for their activities.

Opera House Marketing and Sales manager Stu Dalton says "Trash N Treasure could become an annual event, if interest and support continues to grow for it."

Trash and Treasure is a community event and reflects The OoH's continued commitment to supporting community space and access to The Opera House. "The Opera House is the Town Hall and will always be a place for the people." Marketing Manager Mr Stu Dalton comments.

Stalls will be spread throughout the foyer and on the stage and promises to be a treasure trove for the bargain hunter.

Outdoor items will be displayed outdoors.

The sale, in which anyone who has pre-registered can set up a stall, is one of the lead-up events to the Oamaru Victorian Heritage Celebrations and will spread throughout the Opera House.

The Great Trash and Treasure Garage Sale will be held this Saturday the 14th and is open to the public to grab themselves a bargain from 9am till 4pm. Entry is free.
